August Featured Artists Logan Ghormley and Cynthia Trombino

Reception August 22nd, 10 am-4 pm

Logan Ghormley was primarily a glass blowing artist. Sadly, he passed away in 2018. This August a celebration of his art will be on display in our Dennis Boehm Gallery. His work will be displayed through August. However, A few of his pieces will be displayed and for sale on the reception day only.

August Featured Artist Logan Ghormley and Cynthia Trombino (Continued)

Logan also worked in mixed media with wire and glass. Cynthia Trombino (Logan's Mom) has recently worked in wire using the techniques she observed Logan using. Some of his glass pieces are then added. Also, pieces have been created with some of the broken glass pieces in the Kintsugi tradition. Cindy will also be showing some of her photographs and paintings.
