February Featured Artist

Lonni Peterson

Lonni Peterson is a watercolor artist inspired by her faith and a love for the beauty of creation around her.

A former California educator, she began painting in 2007 after moving to Colorado and sold her first painting through the local arts council's Artist Registry program, which she chaired as a Board member and secretary for many years. She subsequently began selling originals and reproductions of her art as greeting cards, prints and calendars. Most of her paintings are taken from photographs from her garden, trips across the country and abroad.

She relocated to the Northwest Chicago suburbs in 2013 with renewed inspiration at her lakeside home. She is a member and secretary of the Lakes Region Watercolor Guild, the Transparent Watercolor Society of America and the Antioch Fine Arts Foundation.

She would like to give special thanks to her husband, family, fellow artists and mostly her Creator for encouraging her to paint as a means of expressing her creative talent. She is honored to share her watercolors and hopes they inspire you. She can be contacted at watercolorsbylonni@gmail.com or Watercolorsbylonni@facebook.com.

President's Statement: "I am honored that the members of the Antioch Fine Arts Foundation invited me to be their new president. I hope to inspire creativity by offering more classes in a variety of mediums to members and the community, increase membership which will allow The Gallery to be open more often, raise awareness of our new gallery and raise funds to support it." Lonni Peterson
