Featured Artist

Terri Staskiewicz Miller

AFAF member Terri Miller and her three sisters grew up surrounded by the creativity of 1970's Lake County. In addition to exciting art classes at St. Anastasia and Waukegan High School, they experienced the magic of Opa's flower gardens, Grandma's porcelain paintings, Mom's quilts or stained glass and Dad's handcrafted wooden stools.

"The Staskiewicz girls went their separate ways, but each continues to create. Terri enjoys fluid acrylics, often combined with realistic embellishment. Sue, who lives in Maine, pursues 3D and wood carving projects but also gardens with an artist's eye. Living in Mundelein, Ruth is a master of landscape art as well as a serious student of pigment and watercolor. Jill is a gifted Missouri quilter who repurposes vintage furniture and glassware for her home and yard.

When the sisters get together there's sure to be an artsy project involved, and all four will be here in May to participate in Terri's retrospective "Featured Artist" show. See samples of their creative journeys and stop in to visit with "The Girls" during AFAF's "Second Saturday Reception" on May 14th, 2:00 – 6:00 pm.

The History of South Streeterville Premier

Wednesday, March 30th, Dennis and Gail Downes' Documentary, "The History of South Streeterville" premiered at the AMC River East Theater in Downtown Chicago (Streeterville) to a full house and a standing ovation. This documentary took several years, countless interviews, rounds and rounds of edits, collaborating with many of the individuals that helped shape Streeterville into what it is today and it was all worth it! This documentary is the story of the rise of Streeterville from the men and women who played a part in it. Dennis and Gail could not have been happier with the responses and reviews to the film.

The theater was filled with nearly 400 friendly faces from both within and outside of Streeterville. Dennis was honored to have special guest, Janet Davies, drive in from Michigan to sit next to Dennis and Gail for the premier.
