The Antioch Fine Arts Foundation serves the community by providing education, resources and a forum for the creation and expression of the arts for members and residents in Antioch and surrounding areas.

Art in Bloom Exhibit in cooperation with the Antioch Garden Club
Reception: Saturday, May 13th, 2:00 - 5:00 pm

Featured Artist: Jim Gross

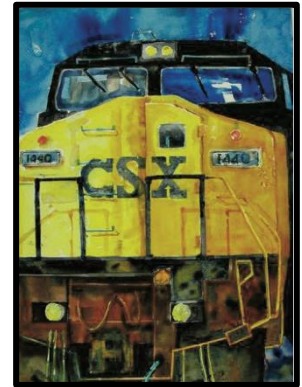

Jim Gross primarily paints in watercolor, but has also worked in oil, colored pencil, colored markers, encaustic and pastel. He believes that “watercolor painting grants the most immediate sense of failure or success. No medium is more vibrant or versatile than watercolor. It offers a sensuality that other mediums do not exhibit and, lastly although a “tough taskmaster,” the rewards are unbeatable. “

Jim attended summer classes at the Art Institute when he was a teenager. He received a BFA in Industrial Design from the University of Illinois, Urbana, IL. His instructors included Carolee Schneeman (life drawing) and Richard Hunt (sculpture). He pursued painting and photography as avocations and did independent studies with Catherine Wilson Smith in watercolor, Laurel Delany in encaustics and attended a watercolor workshop with Iain Stewart.

As an award winner, Jim garnered an Honorable Mention at the Norris Cultural Center in St. Charles, IL for watercolor in 2016.

A Chicago native, Jim now resides in Richmond, IL with his wife and daughter.
