FEATURED ARTIST: Theodora Pavlou

Theodora Pavlou was Born in Athens Greece and raised in the Chicago northwest suburbs. Painting has always been her passion. She graduated from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago with a bachelor's of fine art in art education. Currently she teaches art at Guardian Angel Orthodox Day School along with teaching art at a Greek school. Theodora participates in group shows in Chicago and has had 3 solo art shows in Greece.

Theodora's main medium is painting on canvas with acrylics or oils. She enjoys painting from life/ observation or from references. Her inspiration is drawn from places she's visited, people she's met and everyday life along with incorporating her Greek culture.

Fluid Acrylic Pouring

by Terri Miller

Friday, January 3rd, 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Join fluid acrylic artist Terri Miller for a hands-on introduction to the fun and fascinating fluid acrylic medium. Participants will explore three different paint pouring techniques, guaranteed to produce surprising results. Learn everything you need to know to get started, from paint and prep-work to composition and clean-up. Cost: $50 per person includes all supplies for three paintings

Optional but Recommended:

- 1) Wear old clothes (including shoes!) and/or bring an apron.
- 2) Acrylics dry fast, but fluids can take longer. To bring your wet artwork home bring a large disposable aluminum tray or cardboard box for the car.
