Featured Artist: Tina Fincher

Tina Fincher reflects, "I have been painting in watercolor and batik for over 30 years. I am completely captivated with watercolor techniques and the way the paint flows and blends. I enjoy continual learning, and watercolor is the perfect medium for this, as the results can be completely different each time. Watercolor has taught me perseverance, patience, and the balance between detailed control and 'letting it flow.' Painting nature enables me to spend hours studying the subtle nuances of light, color, and texture. Painting in connection with nature brings a deep sense of joy for which I am extremely grateful. If I can capture a small token of the stunning beauty of a bird, an animal, a sunset, a flower, then I feel quite fortunate."
