From Sea The AFAF July 2025 Invitational Exhibit

to Shining Sea

Saturday July 19th 2-5pm Reception

896 Main Street Antioch IL 60002

Guest Artist: David R. Becker

Armed Forces Remembered

This collection of watercolor paintings is a tribute to the courage, sacrifice, and resilience of those who have served in the Armed Forces. It is dedicated to David Becker's father, Volkhard Bruno Becker, a U.S. Army veteran who served during the Korean War. His strength, humility, and quiet heroism left a lasting imprint on his life and work. (See David Becker's exhibit at the Antioch Art Center.)

Featured Artist: Tiffani Williams

Tiffani Williams uses soft pastels to create colorful, expressive paintings that are inspired by nature - especially flowers and horses - that bring a sense of calm and nostalgia. As an autistic artist with chromesthesia (which means she experiences colors in a unique, sensory way), art is Tiffani's way of moving beyond the literal and connecting more intuitively with the world around her. She tells us,

"Each piece is a reflection of a moment I want to hold onto—like the smell of the barn, the feel of a breeze, or the sunlight dancing on a petal. My hope is that when people see my work, they feel a little more at home and a little more at peace."
